

Privacy Policy: Catalina Council, Boy Scouts of America

www.catalinacouncil.org

The Catalina Council, Boy Scouts of America is committed to respecting and protecting the personal privacy of its members and those who visit its website. It is our policy to acquire personal information from users only by direct and voluntary means, only when it is in the interest of the user to provide it, and to utilize this information only for the purpose it was provided.

The information that follows explains the kinds of information the Catalina Council website collects, how it is used, conditions under which it is made available to third parties, how information is maintained, and our compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.

WHAT INFORMATION DOES THIS SITE COLLECT?

Personal, identifiable data is collected only by means of form interfaces on the site, into which the user must voluntarily enter the information requested. This information is requested only when it is necessary to accomplish the specific purpose indicated by the interface containing the form that requests it.

No attempt is made to covertly or "quietly" collect personally identifiable information on the website. Neither are cookies or any other tracking technology used for the purpose of coordinating information that a user may opt to enter in various interfaces on the site.

WHAT ORGANIZATION IS COLLECTING THE INFORMATION?

Information entered by site visitors is retrieved directly by the Catalina Council, Boy Scouts of America 5049 E. Broadway Blvd, Ste 200 Tucson, AZ 85711 – telephone (520) 750-0385.

HOW DOES THE CATALINA COUNCIL USE THE INFORMATION IT COLLECTS?

Personally identifiable information is used only for the express purpose for which it was submitted. For example, if a user enters their contact information for an event registration, the information can only be used to correspond with them regarding the event and their registration.

CAN DONATIONS BE MADE TO THE COUNCIL ON THIS WEBSITE?

No. Donations to the Catalina Council are not collected on this website. In an agreement with Kintera/Blackbaud, a third party secure processor, a link is available for donors to make secure donations and/or sign up for events. Donation information and event sign-ups are only for the express purpose for which it was submitted and not shared with other organizations.

HOW CAN A DONOR REQUEST TO BE TAKEN OFF A MAILING LIST?

Donors may request to be taken off of the Council's mailing list by sending a request in writing to the Catalina Council, Boy Scouts of America 5049 E. Broadway Blvd., Ste 200 Tucson, AZ 85711.

WEBSITE SECURITY

We have instituted security measures in our physical facility to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of information that we have collected from you. In addition, we always use industry-standard encryption technologies when transferring and receiving customer data exchanged with our website.

Please keep in mind, however, that no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure so you transmit such information at your own risk. The Catalina Council further does not assume responsibility for use or disclosure of your information that are the result of unauthorized or illegal access to our systems.

WITH WHOM DOES THE CATALINA COUNCIL SHARE THE INFORMATION THAT IS COLLECTED?

The Catalina Council does not share personally identifiable information about its web site visitors with anyone. Reports, statistics and other analysis of aggregate anonymous information may be shared within the organization. This information does not include any personally identifiable information.

Exception: the Catalina Council reserves the right to use all information at its disposal and to share this information with the ISPs and other third parties as necessary to investigate any incident of misuse or abuse of its site, server or information systems.

HOW DOES THE CATALINA COUNCIL MAINTAIN THE INFORMATION IT COLLECTS?

In most cases, personally identifiable information is not maintained. Once it has been used for its intended purpose, it is deleted. Because of the brevity of this interval, no mechanism is provided to enable users to alter or delete information they have submitted.

HOW DOES THE CATALINA COUNCIL COMPLY WITH THE CHILDREN'S ONLINE PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT (COPPA) OF 1998?

The Catalina Council does not use its website to collect any personally identifiable information from children under 13 years of age. Any interface that requests personally identifiable information that appears on any interface than can be expected to be viewed by children under 13 years of age is accompanied by a notice that submissions cannot be accepted from users under 13 years of age. Where "age" or "date of birth" is requested, no information will be sorted or transmitted unless the response indicates that the user is 13 years of age or older.

Providing personal information is never a prerequisite for accessing any of the content or resources on this website. Specifically, refusal to provide personal information via a web interface will never result in a user being denied access to any on-line content or resource he would be able to access were the information submitted.

POLICY MODIFICATIONS AND DEVIATIONS:

We may modify this Privacy Policy and will post these changes here. If the Privacy Policy changes in the future, we will not use any personal information you have submitted to us under the current Privacy Policy in a manner that is materially inconsistent with the Privacy Policy, without your prior consent.

It may be necessary to deviate from this general policy in unique instances and for specific purposes. In such instances, a link will be provided to a description of the deviation. This link will be placed where it can be reasonably expected to be noticed prior to submitting any information for which this privacy policy is modified or exempted in any way.
