Mike Hoffman is a resident of Scottsdale Arizona. He is most proud of his wife Maggie and his four daughters. After graduating from Arizona State University in 1987 he joined Arizona distribution general agency, Arizona Benefit Plans, Inc.

Mike currently serves as President and CEO of Arizona Benefits Plans, Inc. and its subsidiary operations in Nevada, New Mexico and California. Mike manages with a team of dedicated staff that provides ongoing service and sales support for over 900 employer groups covering more than 100,000 employee lives under some form of risk protection.

Mike has served in numerous advisory tasks with PPO networks, insurance company advisory boards and client presentation panels. He has been a visible member of the re-insurance community in the southwestern United States for 30 years.

Mike has served in numerous community service leadership roles including as an officer on both the Boy Scout and Girl Scout Boards of Directors. From 2012 to 2014 he served as the President of the Boy Scouts Grand Canyon Council, after serving for almost 15 years on that Councils Executive Board and Executive Committee. He also serves the Boy Scouts nationally as a member of the National Executive Board. As an Executive Board member, Mike also serves on several National Boy Scout Committees and Boards including the Western Region Advisory Board, the National Boy Scout Human Resource and Innovation Committee and the National Order of the Arrow Committee where he serves as Chairman. From 2003 until 2015 he has served the Arizona Cactus Pine Council of the Girl Scouts, serving on the Executive Committee and as Council Treasurer. Finally, Mike has had a passion for his college Fraternity, serving locally as a chapter advisor to the Delta Sigma Phi Chapter at Arizona State University, and then serving from 2003 until 2013 on the National Board of Directors of Delta Sigma Phi men's fraternity. He led the Fraternity as its National President from 2005 to 2009. He currently serves the Delta Sigma Phi Foundation as its Past President.

Mike has been recognized nationally by the Boy Scouts of America with its highest recognition for service to youth on a national basis, the Silver Buffalo Award. He has been recognized by the Girl Scouts with its Thank You Badge and by the National Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity with its Roebuck Award, both given for outstanding service and leadership.
